1. Some people begged the Mas-ter heal

18

one who was blind, whose eyes

18

knew noth-ing of sur-prise,

18

who went with the One who'd re-veal

18

a plan that far ex-ceed-ed

18

the ex-tra mea-sure need-ed.

2. A-lone at last from true and cry,
Jes-us would make de-mands

as one who un-der-stands.

"Now what do you see when you try?"

'A love-ly dem-on-stra-tion

of trees in am-bu-la-tion.'

3. Those eyes that wanted more and more

soaked up the bright and clear,

a clos-er far and near.

Though sight was re-stored as be-fore,

the treat-er's one con-di-tion

de-nied a re-cog-ni-tion.
