1. In silence, O God, don't re-main,

or hold your doubt-ful peace in vain.

See how your en-e-mies are stir-ring :

'Come, we will end them as a na-tion with their com-plete dis-in-te-gra-tion, our dep-u-ties joined in con-cur-ring.

2. Your foes, a-against you, must have thought they'd weave a dou-ble-deal-ing plot, bar-gains from truth-ful-ness di-vorc-ing,

those in the des-ert-tents of E-dom sure of a way to douse our free-dom, the child-ren of Lot re-in-forc-ing.

4. God, bow them head-first in the breeze, as light-ninng claz-zles for-est trees.

Drive them with pan-ic in their fac-es,

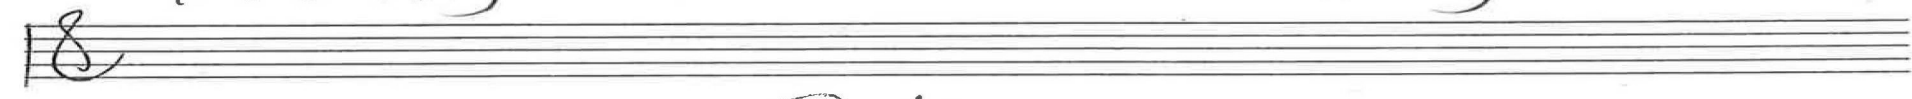

let them re-ceive this dec-la-ra-tion:

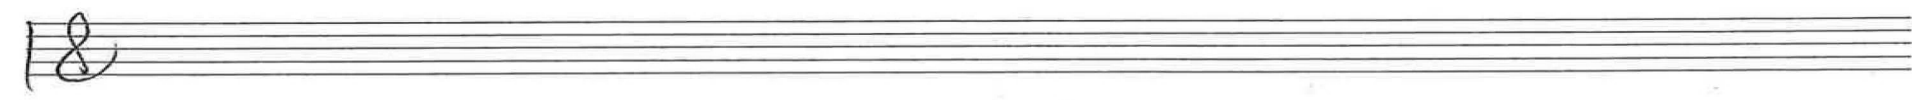

You are the Lord of all cre-a-tion,

Most High a-bove earth and dis-grac-es.
