1. A fig tree a-roused some e-la-tion,

some chance of find-ing figs,

but Jes-us on-ly saw a ra-tion of leaves, up-on the twigs.

'May no one ev-er from you eat of en-vied i-tems sweet.'

2, They went by the tree in the morning

all with-ered to the roots.

"This shrub you cursed, that you were warn-ing, will never give you ^{bo}fruits."

'I sym-bo-lized the ones who sell

the stock of Is-ra-el.

3. You too will en-act de-mon-strations,

since an-y plant-ed tree,

o-bey-ing Pe-ter's as-pir-a-tions,

would jump in-to the sea.

What-ev-er you re-quest in prayer will pass from here to there?
