1. Age is your trait for praise, O God my King,

days per-se-vere while end-less-ly I'd sing.

Be-lov-ed o-ver the gods of the state,

be-yond, all reck-on-ing, im-mense-ly great!

Can our de-vot-ed, joy-ful cel-e-bra-tion

carry on to the fu-ture gen-er-a-tion?

Deeds of re-nown, that splen-dor of your glo-ry!

Make me the chan-nel pass-ing on the sto-ry!

2. Eyes have-n't seen that great-ness I pro-fess,

vast in its scope but kind-ly none-the-less.

Filled up, the good-ness that's yours, all a-lone,

for-ev-er strength-en-ing your judg-ment throne.

Grant, by your na-ture, ver-y ten-der-heart-ed,

gen-erous hands to our need-i-ness, im-part-ed,

High as the cos-mos such a rep-u-ta-tion,

strong as your arm em-brac-ing all cre-a-tion.

3. In our cre-a-ted role, we bless the Lord,

when all the faith-ful saints have been re-stored.

Tu-di-cious cri-tics of kings, at the sight,

jot down the i-tems of ma-jest-ic might.

Know that your acts of sov-ereign-ty and pow-er

kin-dle warmth and the long-a-waited snow-er.

Let this do-min-ion, ev-er-more en-dur-ing,

grow to be-come a king-dom that's ma-tur-ing.

5. Quite close for quell-ing fear in ones who call,

who from the heart in-voke you, great and small,

Re-son-sive, hear-ing our cries for your aid,

re-lief from wa-ter-ways your peo-ple wade

Safe, all who love you, wel-com-ing pro-tec-tion, stamped clear out, who have brok-en their con-nec-tion.

Thanks, for your com-fort, sourc-es of your bless-ing,

let our de-vo-tions ev-er be ex-press-ing.
