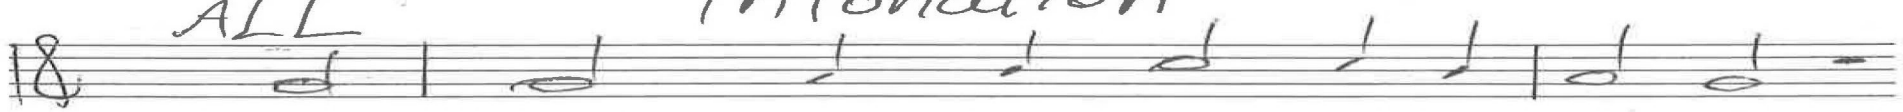
ALL Intonation



1. Why boast when you talk of se-duc-tion, you treach-er-ous re-cruit?

Why hone your tal-ent for de-struc-tion, a tongue we'd call a-cute, and fav-or in all like-li-hood mis-for-tune more than good?

2. A-way once for all and for-ev-er we'd tear you from your tent, up-root your life that you en-deav-or to live with-out con-sent.
You nev-er start-ed life on time and drew your strength from crime.

3. But I am a tree which is grow-ing in hous-es of my God, where liv-ing riv-u-lets are flow-ing, where ic-i-ness has thawed.
I'd glad-ly put my trust in you with those who love you too.
