1. Be-fore the fes-tive win-ter sea-son, the Lord saw a case need-ing aid that brought a-bout a whiff of trea-son.

'This man was born blind for a rea-son, so works of mine that God has made will have to be dis-played.

2. 'As long as day at-lows fru-i-tion we see fields so white and ma-ture and car-ry out the great com-mis-sion til night could with-draw all am-bi-tion.

This world of dark-ness, so ob-scure, shall see a judg-ment-cure.'
