1. A par-a-site with plans to go on liv-ing

fades like the short-lived grass that once was green.

Bank on the Lord, whose na-ture is in giv-ing breath to in-spire you, mak-ing you se-rene.

Come qui-et-ly to one who's ev-er act-ing,

aimed towards the sheen it's clear that you have seen.

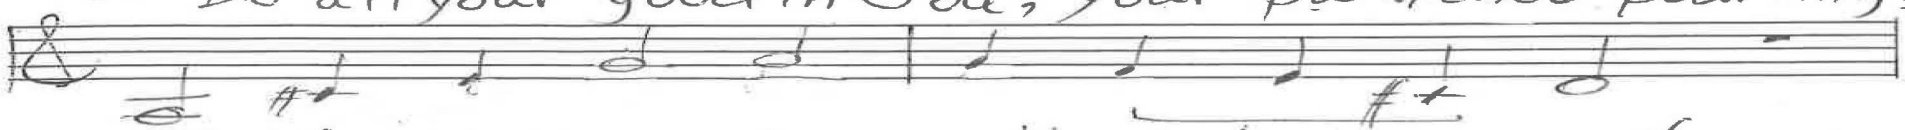
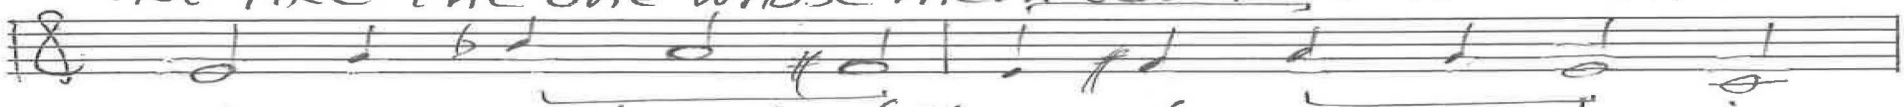
2. Do all your good in God, your pa-tience pour-ing,

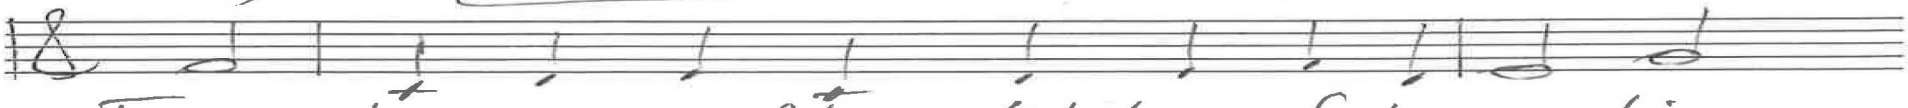


not like the one whose meth-ods have no worth.



End your con-tempt of those who go on whor-ing,

on-ly the meek are bless-ed on the ear th.



For schem-ers are the plot-ters of de-cep-tion, doomed is their birth, for- ev-er-er-more in mirth.

3. Go far a-way to in-sti-gate ag-gres-sion,
shout out Hur-rah to stim-u-late your steed!
Have but for you a vir-tu-ous pos-ses-sion,
one that out-weighs their wealth to which they speed.
In liv-ing on those pure an-gel-ic gran-ules,
grain from the seed, you've ev-ery-thing you need.

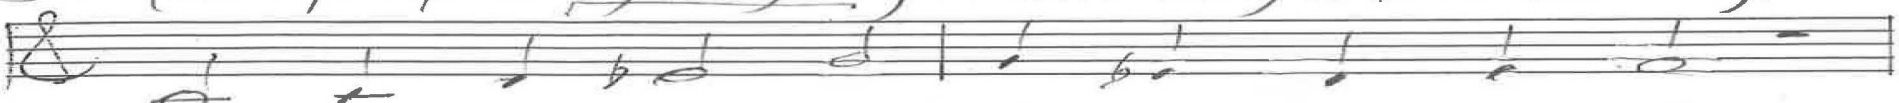
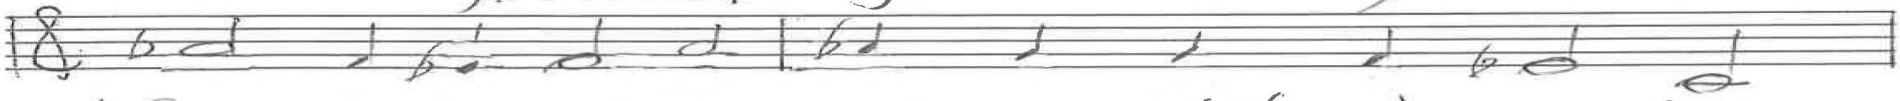
5. More prop-er-ty they've got that they'd be shar-ing,



Some that's for lend-ing, some that they would loan.



Name an-y no-tion worth your while com-par-ing with how re-spect to saints is ev-er shown.

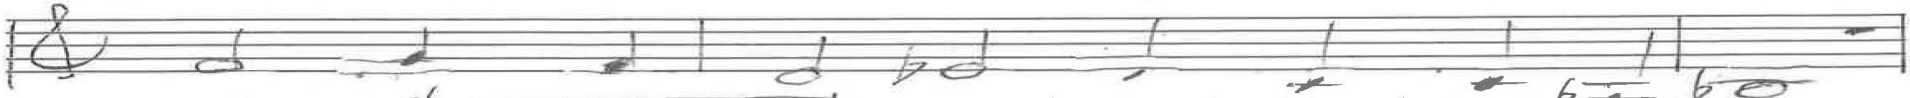
Out-side re-main the wick-ed, but the mod-est



make what they hone by hand their ver-y own.

6. Put wis-dom first, with right-eous-ness a-gree-ing.
Truth in your heart, your steps can nev-er slip.
Quite un-a-shamed, this oth-er dis-mal be-ing,
quick to in-form and get you in a grip.
Rest all your hope in God and in the prom-ise passed as a tip when hold-ings take a dip.

7. So ar-ro-gant, and tow-ering like a ced-ar!
Next, when I looked, no more were an-y found.
Think of a work-er, cer-tain-ly a lead-er,
rear-ing de-scend-ants, peace-ful and re-nowned.
Use fore-sight, one who's un-der-neath a shel-ter,
Saved in a bound, with laur-el du-ly crowned.
