

Write to the God of our salvation

Psalm 66

Chris Nelson 2017

Chris Nelson 2017

6-19
10-20
4-21
3-22

Musical staff with notes for the title.

Intonation

ALL

Musical staff for the start of the first line.

1. Write to the God of our sal - va - tion

Musical staff for the second line.

a mu - sic of our fer - vent praise,

Musical staff for the third line.

firm on the floor of your foun - da - tion,

Musical staff for the fourth line.

fear - some, the bright - ness of your gaze,

Musical staff for the fifth line.

with psalms that all earth will be sing - ing

Musical staff for the sixth line.

to eu - lo - gize your ho - ly name,

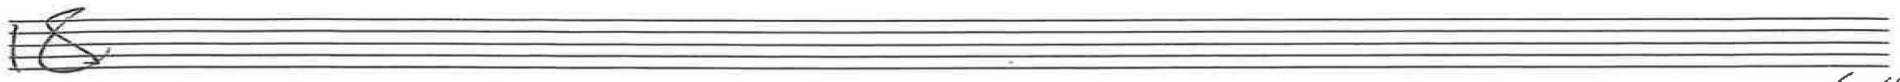

Musical staff for the seventh line.

ri - vals with fa - vors that you're bring - ing,

Musical staff for the eighth line.

friends with ap - prov - al just the same.

p. 1/5 Psalm 66 Chris Nelson 2017

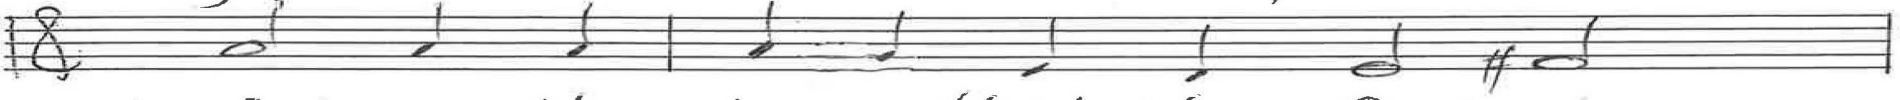

6-19
10-20
4-21
3-22

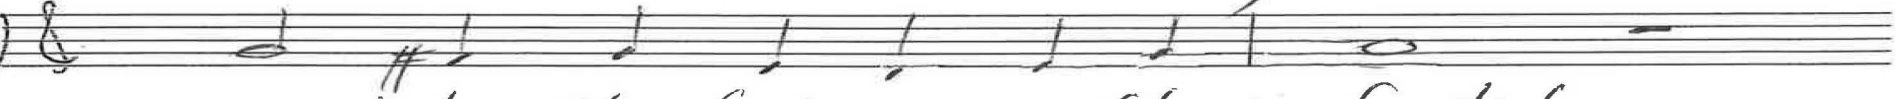

2. Come, see the mar-vels we've re-cord-ed, though Chron-i-cles are in-com-plete . . .

dried up, the riv-er that they ford-ed,

crossed by the folk up-on their feet!

So let us fore-stall de-mon-stra-tions that tear our frag-ile bond to shreds, glad that your face a-bove the na-tions frowns when the reb-els raise their heads!

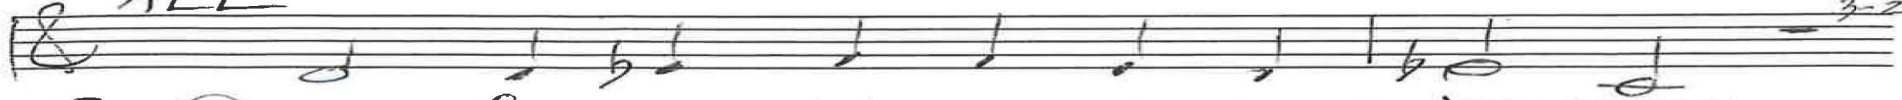

p. 2/5 Psalm 66 Chris Nelson 2017

6-19
10-20
4-21
3-22

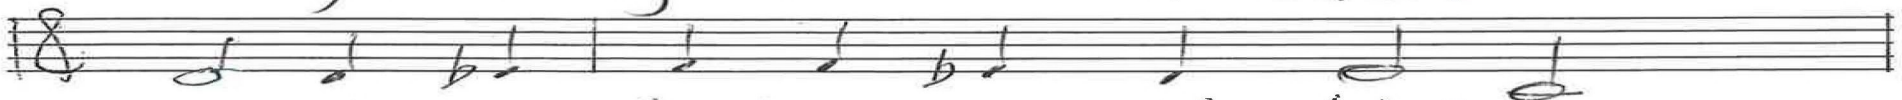

ALL

3. Sound forth our blessings of thanks-giving, with feasting on a lavish scale,

all who are kept among the living,

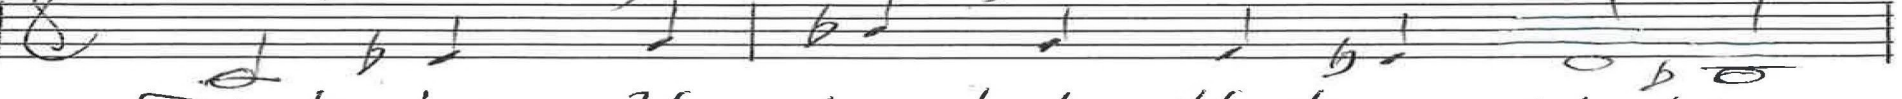

all who are balanced when they fail.

Like silver our aims you're finishing,

by tyrants far away mis-used.

First-ly, the shackles that were binding,

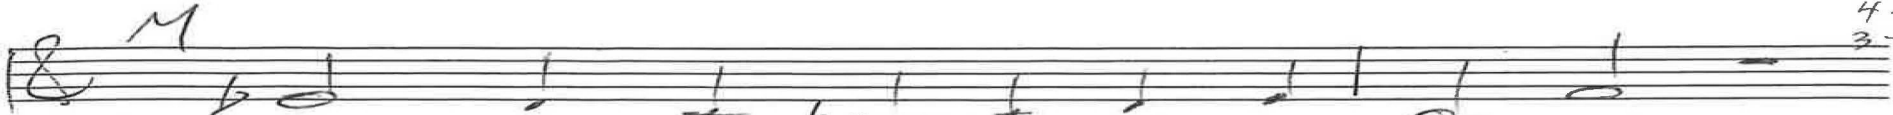

then came the fetters that they fused.

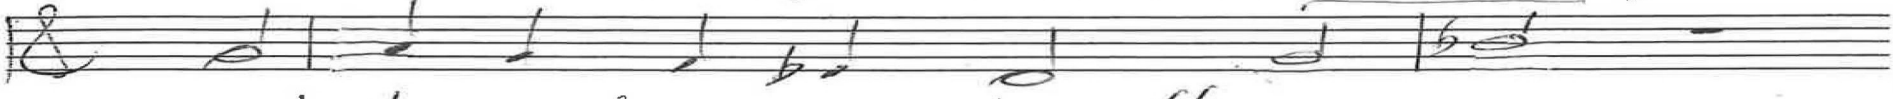

p. 3/5 Psalm 66 Chris Nelson 2017

6-19
10-20
4-21
3-22

4. Done with the fi-re and the wa-ter, you let us draw our breath once more.

Here are the fau-na that I'd slaugh-ter, here, the li-ba-tions that I'd pour.

Those vows that I formed in your dwell-ing,

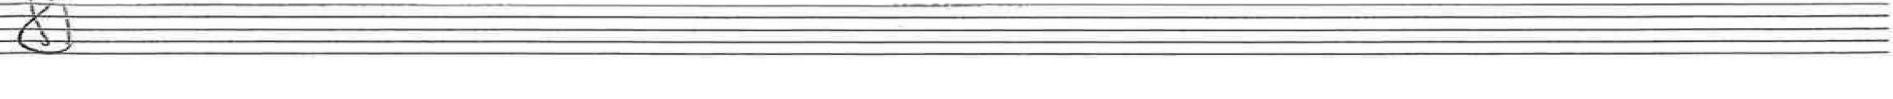

my prom-is-es, be-fore they fade,

those I'd ful-fil while you are smelt-ing smoke from the fat I've o-ver-laid.

p. 4/5 Psalm 66 Chris Nelson 2017

6-19
10-20
4-21
3-22

ALL

5. Make those that fear you pay at-ten-tion to all that you have done for me:

though you're be-yond my com-pre-hen-sion,

when I for-give you set me free.

My of-fering of faith not re-ject-ed,

you're lis-tening to my forth-right prayer,

bless-ings to you who have se-lect-ed hearts as the fea-ture of your care.

p. 5/5
Psalm 66
Chris Nelson 2017

ALL

Intonation

1. Write to the God

9-19
1-20
10-20
4-21
6-21
7-22
10-22
5-23
1-24

In d

w In A

(v. 5, phr. 2)

2. Come, see the marvels

Organ p. 1/4
Psalm 66
Chris Nelson 2020

9-19
1-20
10-20
4-21
6-21
3-22
10-22
5-23
1-24

Organ p. 7/4

ALL

Sound forth our

Psalms 66

blessings

Chris Nelson 2020

all who are kept among the living

8/4
then came the fetters

9-19
1-20
10-20
4-21
6-21
3-22
10-22
5-23
1-24

4/4
Done,
In Bb with the fire and the water

ALL In D
5. Make those that fear you

Organ p: 3/4
Psalm 66
Chris Nelson: 2020

9-19
1-20
10-20
4-21
6-21
7-22
10-22
5-23
1-24

Organ p: #/4

Sw

Sw

My offering of faith

Gt

Psalms 66

Sw

Sw

(reverberation)

Chris Nelson: 2020